

4th Namibia Research Day

Venue: Basler Afrika Bibliographien, Klosterberg 23, 4051 Basel
Organisation: Lena Bloemertz, Dag Henrichsen, Giorgio Miescher

Friday 29 September 2017

Exhibition opening
“Y/OUR Colonial Gaze. Curating Photography”

Friday 29/9/2017

9.15 – 9.30am Registration – Refreshments - Welcome

9.30-10.45am Session I: Land Politics

Romy Nghitevelekwa (UNAM, Windhoek): “The Emerging Land Market in North-Central Namibia: character, impact and future”

Rachel Bedoian (University of Edinburgh): “Urban Elites and Rural Pastoralists: degradation and elite capture of grazing commonage in Ovamboland”

10.45 – 11.15am Refreshments

11.15 - 1pm Session II: Labour and Resistance Histories

William Lyon (Berlin) “Contract Laborers in Namibia, 1897-1920”

Bernard C. Moore (SOAS, London) “Scientific Agriculture, Predator Extermination and Labour Transformations, Southern Namibia 1920-1982”

Silke Isaak Finhold (Limburg): “Liberation Movements in Power – SWAPO and ANC”

1 – 2.30pm Lunch Break

2.30-3.45pm Session III: Masculinities

Jan Severin (Humboldt University, Berlin) “Masculinity and Gender Constructions in German Southwest-Africa”

Jack Boulton (KU Leuven) “Neoliberalism, Young Men and Family Relations in Swakopmund’s Townships”

3.45 – 4.00pm Refreshments

4 - 5.30pm Reflections on the Winter School on Exhibition Making in Namibia (August 2017)