

In collaboration with
Swiss Society of African Studies
Swiss Academy of Humanities and Social Sciences

"Stolen from Africa"? Restitution of Namibian Cultural Heritage in Switzerland

Workshop on Wednesday, 8th May 2019

Venue: Basler Afrika Bibliographien, Klosterberg 23, 4051 Basel

Registration: dh@baslerafrika.ch or giorgio.miescher@unibas.ch

9:00-9:15	Welcome and Introduction
9:15-11:00	Museums and Collections in Switzerland and Namibia (Session 1) Nehoa Kautondokwa & Jeremy Silvester (Museums Association of Namibia) The Namibian Heritage Landscape Thomas Laely (Völkerkunde Museum der Universität Zürich) The Swiss museums landscape Samuel Bachmann (Bernisches Historisches Museum) The Berne museum and its Namibian collection: a case study
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-13:00	Claims, Research and Restitution Group Work (45 minutes) & report back & discussion
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-16:00	Processes, Practices and Experiences of Resitution Nehoa Kautondokwa & Jeremy Silvester (Museums Association of Namibia) Returning from Stuttgart: "The Bible and the Whip" Lisa Roulet & Susanne Hubler (Basler Afrika Bibliographien) Loose ends in an Archive: "Ethnographic objects" and photographic collections Reto Ulrich & Dag Henrichsen (Basler Afrika Bibliographien) Why only Museum Collections? Towards broader concepts of (colonial) African heritage collections
16:00-17:00	Coffee Break & Final discussion
18:00-20:00	Round Table Discussion (see separate programme)

