

Fees for publishing reproductions from the BAB Archives

The creation of reproductions (copies, photographs, scans, films, slides, mp3/WAV etc.) from documents in the BAB Archives and publishing of reproductions requires our permission and is subject to fees and charges.

In case the BAB is entitled to a copyright, the following fees apply (with possible deviations):

Marketing/publicity publications

- Fr. 500.-

Other commercial usages

- Fr. 150.-

Non-commercial usages

- Free of charge

In case of publications of immediate interest by the BAB, fees can be dismissed or reduced.

The fees provided allow for singular usage per copy without further notification and are only valid for the agreed purpose. Any further usage requires anew our permission.

Payment of the fees do not exempt from the obligations to reference each source according to the stipulations of the BAB archives and to deposit a complimentary copy.

In addition to these fees, possible reproduction costs and possible expense coverage for research, administration (CHF 100.- per hour) and shipment costs (including material costs) can be charged.

These fees do not serve a commercial purpose of BAB. They support the archival conservation and cataloguing work regarding African heritage in Switzerland and digitisation and repatriation projects of BAB.

Valid from 1 October 2022.
